Our stainless steel hobs are designed to guarantee maximum performance and maximum energy saving. The stainless steel hobs are made to make every kitchen unique thanks to their various design styles, in order to satisfy any stylistic need. The cast iron grills are made in such a way that the pans can be easily moved over the entire surface of the hob without affecting the aesthetics. The extreme efficiency and the refined design are essential elements for the kitchen, the convivial space par excellence of all the houses. Our professional stainless steel hobs are sturdy and long lasting, made of stainless steel to guarantee functionality and design.
